PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE WASATCH FRONT REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION PLAN: 2007-2030

The Wasatch Front Regional Council (WFRC) is seeking public review and comment on a proposed amendment to the Wasatch Front Regional Transportation Plan: 2007-2030 (RTP), and the accompanying air quality conformity analysis. The amendment is the movement of the Sugar House Transit Line from Phase 3 of the RTP to Phase 1. The RTP serves as the template for transportation development for both highways and public transit in the Wasatch Front urban region through the year 2030.

A review and comment period for the proposed RTP amendment and the accompanying air quality conformity analysis begins on November 30, 2009 and ends on January 12, 2010.

The proposed amendment to the RTP and its air quality conformity analysis are available at the WFRC website at www.wfrc.org. Requests for information or comments may be directed to Ned Hacker at (801) 363-4250 (Salt Lake) or (801) 773-5559 (Ogden). Comments may also be sent by fax at (801) 363-4230, e-mail at nhacker@wfrc.org or by mail to the Wasatch Front Regional Council, Attn: Ned Hacker, 295 North Jimmy Doolittle Road, Salt Lake City, UT 84116.
